

WV Flash Flood Response Area

Target beneficiaries

29,038

of People reached with life-saving humanitarian assistance

12,468

12,468 children reached with drinking water and food relief

Forseen Budget

its 60 day response (relief): 100,000 USD
6 months response (recovery): 120,000 USD

Current Funding Partners

World Vision

With donations from World Vision support offices:
Japan, Canada, Australia, Korea

Priority Sectors

RESPONSE GOAL

The goal of World Vision is to provide life-saving assistance to people in the South affected by the recent flooding.

Relief phase:

Assist 29,038 affected people (5,079 households)
Sectors: Food and WASH

Recovery phase

Restore the education system in three of the most affected schools in Xonnabouly district
272 students from a community of 2,891 members

Sector: Education, livelihoods,

RESPONSE PLAN

WV is currently present in 5 of the most affected districts (Saravan, Soukhouma, Thapangthong, Xonnabouly, Nhommalath) via community pledge and grant project work in four of the 6 affected Provinces (Saravan, Champasack, Savannakhet and Khammouane); and have started floods prepositioning internally and externally since early

FOOD SECURITY

5,079 households have benefited from food distribution. Among the food items distributed, according to the needs, were rice (30 kg per household), ready-to-eat meal noodles (1 box with packages per household), fish cans (10 can per household).

Districts: Thapangthong (460 HHs), Xonnabouly (2,157 HHs), Saravan (158 HHs), Soukhouma (1,824 HHs) and Nhommalath (279 HHs) (September 2019).

DRINKING WATER

World Vision has responded to the urgent needs of drinking water of 2,721 households (approx. 11,700 beneficiaries), on average 1.5 liters per 6 bottles per households.

Districts: Thapangthong (460 HHs), Saravan (158 HHs), Soukhouma (1,824 HHs) and Nhommalath (279 HHs) (September 2019)

PARTNERSHIP AND COORDINATION

WV is closely coordinating with the local authorities for the response of this emergency, District and Province Department of the Labour Social Welfare, in charge of Disaster Management, Ministry of Foreign Affair, Lao Red Cross and iNGO disaster and risk reduction network.

STAFF DEPLOYED

WVL has deployed 38 staffs (including volunteers) and working closely with Government at national and local for relief responses

“The relief distribution is very helpful and useful for me and my family members. We are more than 6 people in the family” says Danh, 10-year-old, studies in primary school, Grade 4.”

