World Vision is an international child-focused and community-based organisation, dedicated to working with children, families and communities to overcome poverty and injustice.

IMPACT: In 2018, 128,265 children in Armenia benefitted from World Vision’s programmes, 35,000 of these children are registered in World Vision’s ‘Child Sponsorship’ programme.
World Vision Armenia focuses on early child development to support the healthy growth and development of children under 5.

IMPACT: 78 per cent of postnatal period women are being screened in World Vision’s programme communities. 2.7 per cent of screened women were identified with signs of severe depression and were referred to specialists.
World Vision Armenia seeks to empower children, families, communities and partners to prevent and respond to exploitation, neglect, abuse and other forms of violence affecting children, with a particular focus on the most vulnerable.

IMPACT: 59 per cent of the highly vulnerable families (1050 families) supported by World Vision recorded positive changes in their lives; improving families’ housing conditions, providing for children’s healthy food, educational needs and health.
“Caring for Equality” project seeks to change attitudes and prevent behavior that is harmful to women and girls. It seeks an environment where girls and boys are born and valued equally.

IMPACT: Positive change is recorded on male to female ratio for children under 1 in project-affected communities from 121 boys/100 girls to 106 boys/100 girls; in Gegharkunik Marz with a change from 123 boys/100 girls.
World Vision Armenia seeks to establish an environment and effective platforms where youth may exercise authentic participation and pursue their own visions, dreams, hopes, and concerns pertaining to development and overall well-being.

IMPACT: 150 young professionals started earning their living on their own after participating in vocational training and gaining an in-demand profession.
The project, funded by the European Union, seeks to contribute to the (self) - employability of young women and men with fewer opportunities in Armenia and Georgia.
World Vision Armenia seeks to empower the community producers to have sustained increase in their income or business profit that improves their ability to provide well for their children.

IMPACT: Around 70 per cent of producers are able to provide well for their children; they pay for school supplies, clothes and better feed their children. Producers run their businesses, have their own income and don’t depend on allowances or external support.
In 2018, World Vision started "EU4Tourism: Community-driven rural tourism and cultural activities in Gegharkunik and Vayots Dzor marzes" two-year project, funded by European Union, to contribute to the promotion of tourism and culture in Gegharkunik and Vayots Dzor marzes. The project is implemented together with the Foundation for the Preservation of Wildlife and Cultural Assets.
To contribute to prevention and elimination of violence against children and comprehensive rehabilitation of a child exposed to violence, in September of 2018 World Vision Armenia, UN Children’s Fund Armenia, Save the Children International Armenia Country Office, SOS Children’s Villages Armenia, Children of Armenia Fund, Civil Society Institute, Child Protection Network, Family and Community NGO, Children’s Support Center of Fund for Armenian Relief and the Staff of Human Rights Defender, launched the “Share love not violence” five-year public campaign.
In 2018, World Vision in Armenia started ‘Community Level Access to Social Services’ three-year project funded by USAID to strengthen Armenia’s social protection system through effective community-based social work and to improve the lives of most vulnerable children and their families in ten marzes (60 communities) and in Yerevan.
