FOR GENDER EQUALITY

ACCORDING TO MEER ACT NOW RESEARCH, COVID-19 AFFECTS GIRLS AND BOYS DIFFERENTLY

I. PRODUCTIVE AND REPRODUCTIVE WORK

2. PHYSICAL AND EMOTIONAL VIOLENCE

more likely than girls to experience physical violence from friends

2.5X

Girls are more likely than boys to experience physical violence from family members

strangers

more likely than girls to experience physical violence from

3. RESILIENCE AND COPING MECHANISMS

Boys are more resilient than girls when facing pandemic stressors

				Ó
	77.7%	l feel useful	85.2%	T
	70.5%	l feel relaxed	77.2%
	73.7%	l have been dealing well with problems	80.7%
	81.6%	l have been thinking clearly	87.8%
	73.4%	l feel close to other people	77.6%
	56.8%	l have been able to make my own mind up about things	40.0%

.

World Vision Middle East and Eastern Europe Regional Office

280 Strovolos Avenue, 2048 Strovolos, Nicosia, Cyprus +357 22.870.277 www.wvi.org

For further information please contact:

Leah Donoghue Director of Communications and Advocacy World Vision MEER leah_donoghue@wvi.org