1. In a nutshell, what is the perception and role of Faith and Faith Leaders in preventing VAC including sex-based discrimination in VAC
2. Where do faith leaders stand on the issue of VCD? What influence do they have on social and cultural norms related to VCD? Can/should FLs change these norms?
3. Are "personal status law" and religious courts putting the best interests of children and women at the center of their decisions?
Thank You