

Accelerating Action for Eliminating Child Labour and Forced Labour (AECFL)

Empowering Communities to Combat Child Labour and Forced Labour

Brief Overview:

The Accelerating Action for Eliminating Child Labour and Forced Labour (AECFL) project aims to prevent and eliminate child labour, forced labour, and human trafficking through increased awareness and strengthened labour legal frameworks. Running from May 2024 to October 2026, this project collaborates with communities and stakeholders at all levels.

Main Objectives:

- Increase awareness about child labour and human trafficking.
- Strengthen reporting and support mechanisms for child labour victims.
- Enhance enforcement of child labour laws.

Areas of Intervention:

Awareness Raising:

Engaging communities and stakeholders to spread awareness about child labour and human trafficking.

Reporting and Support:

Establishing mechanisms for monitoring, reporting, and supporting victims.

Law Enforcement:

Advocating for and assisting in the enforcement of child labour laws.

Key Outcomes & Outputs:

Outcome 1: Community Engagement

Youth Clubs, Community Child Protection Teams, and Faith-Based Organizations lead monitoring and awareness-raising activities.

Outcome 2: Legal Frameworks

Child Labour-Coordinating Bodies campaign to promote action on national legal frameworks and the National Action Plan.

Key Outputs

- Training 500 community leaders and reaching 6,000 community members.
- Reporting cases of child labour to district-level agencies.
- Referring 300 child labour victims to social programs.

Impact Metrics:

Community Reach:

Training and engaging 500 members of Youth Clubs, Community Child Protection Teams, and Faith-Based.

Victim Support:

Referring 300 child labour victims to social protection services.

Legal Advocacy:

Informing and mobilizing Child Labour-Coordinating Bodies to influence policy changes