

World Vision

Peacebuilding in Iraq

Key Data

Since 2014

5.1

million Iraqis have returned home

but 1+ million
remain displaced.

107,000
people in formal camps

LOCALIZED POLITICAL VIOLENCE

Iraq continues to experience localized political violence, which affects community stability and returnee reintegration.

Key Data

ACCEPTANCE OF RETURNEES VARY BY GOVERNORATE

76% in Ninewa

95% in Salah al-Din

56% in Kirkuk reported comfortable interacting with returnees.

Between February and December 2024, CRRISA provided Mental Health and Psychosocial Support (MHPSS) services to 3,040

individuals through psychoeducation, individual and group counseling, and life skills training.

Children's Peace Manifesto

Iraq 2025

What does peace mean to us?

*Peace is safety and freedom.
Peace means love, harmony, justice, and respect.
Peace allows children to play without fear.
Peace is both a human and religious principle.
Peace is the foundation of society.*

What does peace mean to us?

*Encourage reconciliation and cooperation among communities.
Promote tolerance through education and mentoring.
Reject discrimination and support those in need.
Spread kindness, empathy, and compassion.
Use sports like football to unite children across ethnicities and religions.*

What does peace mean to us?

*"Peace means living peacefully with your neighbors, regardless of their ethnicity or religion."
"Football can bring children together, foster social cohesion and friendship."*