

Improving livelihoods

Helping women with income generating projects

Shift towards investing in technical vocational training so people can gain skills and improve their livelihoods

Agriculture, manufacturing and production limited by occupation control of land, access of goods, water resources and raw materials

Proportion of ADP households who report that their income was increased during the last year through livestock

The LIFT program did help families but impact was limited

